Planning a Train Crawl

A train crawl is a great way to get out and explore the suburbs in a fun, relaxed setting. A little foresight and planning will go a long way to ensuring you and your group have a great day riding the rails. This travel guide is specially designed to help you schedule your crawl so you can get the most out of your event.

First and foremost, plan a "home base" station to start and end from. This way you and your guests can more easily plan ahead to determine the logistics of how to get home at the end of the night.

Next, determine what kinds of places you'd like to stop at and how long you'd like to spend at each location. The Yard Social Club recommends low-key, more casual establishments where guests will feel comfortable walking around and mingling. We recommend scheduling around the "sweet spot" of 60-90 minutes per location, but obviously the train schedule will require some flexibility. Don't forget to include time to get back to the station before the next train comes, including additional time to cross the tracks if needed. On the Union Pacific West, inbound trains usually run on the north track and outbound trains usually run on the south track. Build some flexibility in your schedule in case unforeseen delays occur, either due to your group, or slight delays on Metra's end.

Metra operates on a fare zone structure, with distance-based fares. Metra also offers a $10 Weekend Pass, which is good on all Metra trips on Saturday and Sunday of the same weekend, regardless of fare zone or line traveled. Weekend Passes and one-way fares can be purchased in cash onboard the train from a conductor, or on the Ventra app using debit, credit, or transit value. Onboard cash fares may incur a $5 penalty if purchased when a ticket agent was on-duty at the time of boarding (generally only applicable at LaSalle Street Station).

Effective June 1, 2019, monthly tickets include Weekend Passes regardless of the zone pair shown on the ticket. Monthly ticket holders should show their paper monthly ticket, or launch the QR code on their Ventra digital ticket.
